Print Credential

This is to certify that the bearer hereof

Reverend

Andreas Klamm

has been ordained this Sunday the 4th of April 2010

and has all rights and privileges to perform all duties of the Ministry.

This print-out only serves as a personal receipt of your ordination; it is not a legal document. In many states, you must present a Letter of Good Standing, Wallet Card, and/or Ordination Credential when registering with a county clerk in person.

This is a receipt of your ordination. In states that require Minister Registration (see our FAQ page), this receipt is not a legal document. The credential above confirms that your personal information and ministerial standing has been recorded in the Church database. In many situations you MUST present a hard copy of your Official Ordination. Many state and local authorities may require a hard copy to verify your ordination. It is suggested that you order the Official Credential, imprinted with your name, ordination date and Seal of the Church.
